

Meet the Eco Warriors

We all applied for the role of eco warriors at St Mary's because we want to look after our environment.

We don't just mean the environment at school or at home but its our whole planet!! Every child in each class voted for who they wanted to represent their year group in the eco team.

We have been trusted to care for our world by Pope Francis in his Laudato Si call to care for our common home.

